FILE: 21-5511
INCIDENT: Vehicle Pursuit of Armed Robbery Suspect
DATE OF INCIDENT: July 4, 2021
TIME OF INCIDENT: 3:15 PM
LOCATION: Hillcrest Avenue at Highway 4
ARRESTED: Cameron Conley 28 years old from Hercules

On July 4, 2021, at approximately 3:15 P.M an Antioch Officer located a vehicle driving on Hillcrest Avenue near Highway 4 that was wanted by San Jose Police Department for multiple armed robberies in the City of San Jose. The driver of the vehicle (Cameron Conley) entered Highway 4 in the westbound direction. As additional officers arrived in the area, Conley fled and led officers on a pursuit. The pursuit continued westbound Highway 4 at speeds in excess of 100 mph. Conley exited Bailey Road and then turned back onto eastbound Highway 4 towards Antioch at speeds in excess of 100 mph.

Conley exited Hillcrest Avenue, continued south, and turned into the Hidden Glenn neighborhood. Officers followed Conley as he drove into a court. Conley then rammed three patrol cars, to include a K-9 car, in an attempt to escape. Conley's vehicle became disabled, and he fled on foot into the neighborhood. Officers followed Conley as he entered an occupied residential home. Officers and the K-9 apprehended Conley after a brief struggle. Conley was taken to a local hospital with minor injuries, and later booked into the Martinez Detention Facility.

No further information will be released at this time.
